IN JAIL.

Tommie Was Nervous and Killed the Wrong Woman.

Tommie Tucker, the negro who killed his wife last Sunday morning at Shady Grove, came in yesterday morning and gave himself up.

The negro went to Adam Eichelberger, who employed him when a boy, and told him the circumstances and asked him to go with him to the sheriff, which the colonel did, and Tommie is now locked up in the county jail.

It seems that the killing was not as cold-blooded a murder as at first thought.

Another man had stolen the affections of Tommie's faithless spouse, and had caused a separation.

Upon the night of the killing the erring couple were holding high carnival, and the enraged Tommie could not resist the temptation of putting a few buckshot into the man's devoted ribs, and Tommie being nervous, and the twain pretty close together, he killed his wife instead of her paramour. So we should think the man is deserving of considerable mercy.
